new Minister will also come out prepared to demand the opening of the Tung. uppers waters of the Chuking to British trade as some slight stonement for the hideous murders and cruel outrages perpetrated in the Yangtere Valley at the instance of treacherous Chinese officials."

The further remarks Mr. Lowrence is credited with making, to the effect that Mr O'Conon had in great measure been foiled in his efforts to promote the extension of trade by the supineness of the merchants seem to have been hardly called for. It is scarcely credible that if new channels be opened up to British trade by the perseverance and energy of British officials that British merchants would prove so lacking in enterprise as to fail to take immediate advantage of such opening. There must, we imagine, be some misunderstanding here. Where a profit is to be won, by trade being created developed, British merchants are usually well to the fore. But British manufacturers are not always so prompt, and they frequently show a fatally conservative determination to stick to old lines that has allowed Continental producers a good opportunity of chipping in. Some of our more observant consuls have pointed out, now and again, the advisability in circulation. A solution of the "low-dollar" difficulty is suggested in Science Siftings thus. In every ton of sea water there is nearly a grain of gold That is in the whole sea there is more than a million times as much gold as there is gold coin at one fixed spot where the are is always changing, say in the Gulf Stream, by a current of below one volt, and there you are! Now that the influence has almost faded out of recollection an officer on the China Station revives the subject by telling us of a curious experience which happened to those on board the ship in which he is serving. The vessel was at sea, out of sight of land, when the scourge board ed her, as it were, at night, and in the course of the next day nearly a seventh of the ship's company was affected. THE PROSECUTION OF THE OPIUM FARMER.

R BEG to express through your columns my deep regret that I should in a hasty moment, in consequence of my not being able to read or understand Chineso accounts, have commenoed a prosecution against Mr. Koh Chong Sean, the Chief Manager of the late Opium Form, with reference to the funds of the Cheang Tek Kong See. A complete investigation into the matter and a careful examination of the books and accounts have theroughly convinced me that my suspicious were whelly groundless, and that there has been nothing whatever in Mr. Koh Cheng Seen's management of the business of the Opium Farm that QUARE BOTTLE WHISKY is in any way reprehensible; and further, that he has all along been doing his best, honestly and faithfully, for the benefit of the Chonng Tek Kong See.

I should be abliged if you would insort this letter in your correspondence column once, and afterwards as an advertisement for the period of one month, as I am anxious to undo as far as possible any injury I may have, through my hasty and unjustifiable action, inflicted upon Mr. Koh Cheng Soun,
